1-Day Workshop Taught by Anat Baniel Sunday, June 4, 2017 • Denver, Colorado

NeuroMovement® for Children with Special Needs 1-Day Workshop:

In this workshop you'll experience the remarkable capacity of the brain to change and transform your child and your life for the better, physically, emotionally and cognitively. You will learn theory and practice to use in your daily life for breakthrough outcomes for your child. You'll discover ways to reduce your child's stress, pain and limitation, and increase everyone's well-being and joy as your child begins to improve in remarkable ways. The professional will learn techniques for new possibilities with clients.

Anat Baniel, best-selling author, clinical psychologist and dancer, studied closely with Dr. Feldenkrais for over 15 years. From 30 years of remarkable outcomes with thousands of children with special needs, she developed her own cutting-edge, scientifically based Anat Baniel Method® Neuro-Movement® approach for transforming the lives of children and their families. She has trained hundreds of practitioners in this method. Her teaching is easy to follow, inspiring and life changing.
